BASIM—See Hyderabad Assigned Districts.

BASSEIN—British Burmah.

A District in the Irrawaddy Division of the Chief Commissionership of British Burmah, lying between Lat. 15° 44′ 50″ and 17° 59′ 15″; Long. 94° 15′ and 95° 40′ 15″. Is bounded on the North by Henzada, lying east, and Sandoway, west of the Arahan Hills; on the South and West by the Bay of Bengal; and on the East by Tho-negwa district. District Area, 6,517 square miles. Population, 322,689; 1,221 miles from Calcutta; Seaport at Dalhousie.

The Town of Bassein bears the same name as that of the District, the larger portion of it is built upon the eastern bank of the Naga-woon river; though 80 miles distant from the sea, Bassein nevertheless is a good port, as the river is easy of navigation and affords a depth of water sufficient for the largest ships. Municipal limit is about 14 square miles, of which 74 miles are on the eastern, 31 miles on the western bank of the river, and about three square miles of the river. Population, 28,200. Dak Bungalows at Bassein, Nguthaingyoung, and Leh-myeth na.

COORG—Southern India.

A Province in Southern India under the Administration of the Government of India, lying between N. Lat. 11° 56' and 12° 50'; E. Long. 75° 24' and 76° 30'. It is bounded along its entire Western Frontier by the Mountain Chain of the Western Ghats, which separates it from the Madras Districts of Malabar and South Canara. The Western Ghats curve somewhat inland, which serves also to some extent as the Northern and Southern boundary. The North of Coorg is partially separated from the forest highlands of Mysore, by the rivers Kumuradhari and Hemavati; and on the East, it merges in the general table-land of Mysore, the boundary being marked by the River Cauvery. The total area, according to the recent estimate of Survey Dept., is 1,580 square miles. Population, 168,312.

The Chief Town and seat of Administration is MERKARA.

CLARETS.

We make the healthy character and putity of all our supplies our special study; in these days of adulteration, it is impossible to be too careful in selecting Wines and Spirits. Consumers should be very particular to avoid cheap and unknown Brands.

We are sole agents for Messrs, A. Lalande & Co., of Bordeaux, to whom were awarded the first prizes for Clarets. These Wines can only be obtained from us: they are invaluable to invalids and persons whose blood has become impoverished from a long residence in India.

CRATEAU LEOVILLE POYFERER, a truly magnificent Claret, as full-bodied and luscious as generous Port... ... Rs. 60 0

All Clarets in pints at Rs. 2 per two dozen case extra.

It should always be remembered, when purchasing light Wines, that good Wines, however light they may be (like averything else that is good), cannot be had for less than their value.

Buyers often say "anything will do for cup." This is a great mistake; the fact remains the same, that in putting this rubbish into cup, Curaçoa, Sodawater, &c., though they make it more palatable, do not alter the character of the Wine.

MARSALA.

The undernoted description of Wines is a faithful one, and the marks will be found to correspond to the character described.

SHERRIES.

It has been remarked by many that Sherries cause acidity or heartburn; these evils are the result very often of taking Sweet Wines. Our Sherries are all pure, wholesome, and can confidently be recommended.

TEA LEAD ROLLING MILLS, LIMEHOUSE, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED 1789.

ORIGINATORS OF THE INCORRODIBLE TEALEAD.

AWARDED THE ONLY MEDAL FOR TEA LEAD AT THE .

CALCUTTA EXHIBITION, 1884.

MESSRS. W. W. & R. Johnson & Sons' Tea Lead is not only coated with a special preparation of Tin, but is also an amalgamation so prepared as to render the whole of the Metal non-corrodible, and is consequently not liable to the risks incidental to Lead merely coated with a thin film of Tin.

The process of manufacture, namely,—the casting, rolling and cutting, &c.,—is effected by Machinery specially designed and patented by them, thereby ensuring perfect uniformity in substance and size of Sheets.

The Tea Lead is carefully packed in cases. The Zinc linings being so designed that only one joint is made at the top of the case, thereby diminishing the risk of injury to the Sheets of Tea Lead.

Messrs. Johnsons' attention has been called to the recent question relating to the action of the Acid generated by moisture in the wood used for Tea Chests or otherwise—it is well known that moisture of any sort damages the Tea, also that all woods contain or will absorb moisture, hence the necessity of having a perfectly airtight Lead lining, which will resist the effect of this influence. The special amalgamated Incorrodible Lead, when properly and carefully soldered, will do this and insure the contents of each Tea Chest (under fair conditions) arriving to Market sound and unimpaired in quality.

Messrs. W. W. & R. Johnson & Sons supply all requisites for Tea Gardens, such as Hoop Iron, Solder, Solder Fluid, Resin, Nails, Hoes, Shovels, etc., etc.
